

Summer 2010 summer programs

Updates a/o 2/24/10 – page one

Scholarships:

AES Engineering is offering scholarships on the basis of character, as determined by evaluating the essays that are submitted. You do not have to be an engineering student. Go to www.aesengineers.com/scholarships.php for more information.

The Am. Soc. Of Civil Engineers awards 6-7 scholarships to juniors students of minority background to attend the Intro to Engineering Summer Program at Univ. of Notre Dame. The entire cost is covered including room, board and transportation. They are seeking students proficient in math and science. Deadline is March 31st. See Ms. Lawson or your science or math teacher for an application.

Summer Classes and Programs

Thomas Aquinas College in California offers a 2 week (July25-Aug. 7) summer program based on the Great Books. Cost is $975 but does not include air fare. Go to www.thomasaquinas.edu for more information and an application.

The Illinois Div. of the American Cancer Society offers an integrated Summer Research Program. The objective is to introduce students to scientific cancer research and to help students develop their own philosophy in biophysics, biochem, immunology and pharmacology as well as gain an understanding of cancer and its impact on Illinois residents. To learn more call Tyharrie Hill 312-279-7382 or thill@cancer.org See Ms. Lawson for an application and more info. Deadline-March 22, 2010.

How would you like to spend about a week at the U.S. Naval Academy this summer? The Academy is offering a FREE program (except for your transportation to and from Annapolis). The program is called STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, Math). To find out more information and to apply on line go to: www.usna.edu/admissions/stem

Programs Abroad

If you are looking for something to do this summer either going abroad or a program on a college campus check out the following: Academic Summer Programs in Europe - informational meeting 3/3 at the Westin Chicago River North 7-9 P.M. Call 1-800 828-8349 or www.oxbridgeprograms.com. Many universities offer programs e.g. Loyola-go to www.luc.edu/summerscholars. For more colleges go to www.usummer.com.

Scholarships and Contests:

- If you live in Edison Park you are eligible to apply for a $3,000 scholarship. Go to www.edisonpark.com/epcc for an application or see Ms. Lawson for an application.
- The Union League Club of Chicago offers its “Democracy in Action Award” to students who have demonstrated exemplary civic leadership and have in some way helped to advance understanding of constitutional principles and democracy. Selected honorees receive cash awards of up to $1500. You will need two letters of recommendation from teachers who are familiar with your work & activities in civic affairs. See Ms. Lawson for an application. Deadline 1/15/10
- The National Italian Golf Tournament for Charities is offering two $7500 high school scholarships to a student of Italian ancestry with a minimum of 3.0 GPA. The winners MUST attend the tournament banquet on Sat. July 31 at the Grand Geneva Resort in Lake Geneva, WI. See Ms. Lawson for an application or go to www.nationalitaliantournament.com. Deadline is Feb.5, 2010.
- Princeton University offers the Princeton Prize Race Relations awards program in order to promote, support and encourage the young people of our country who have demonstrated a commitment to advancing the cause of positive race relations. Prizes include cash awards up to $1,000. Must be postmarked by Jan. 31. Go to www.princeton.edu/PrincetonPrize for an application and more information.
- National Security Language Initiative for Youth is part of a multi-agency U.S. gov’t. initiative. It awards full merit-based scholarships to H.S. students for participation in summer, semester, year language programs. Must be U.S. citizen between 15-18 yrs. old, min. gpa 2.5. For more information and application go to www.nsliforyouth.org. Deadline is Dec. 4
- Are you interested in poetry? Kenyon College is offering the Patricia Grodd Poetry Prize for Young Writers. The winning poem and two runners-up will be published in the Kenyon Review. The winner is offered a full scholarship to the 2010 Writers Workshop (valued over $2,000) at Kenyon College, a residential 2 week summer program for aspiring writers. Submissions will be accepted Nov.1-30th. Go to www.kenyonreview.org for more info or see Ms. Lawson.
- Are you interested in pharmacy? Jewel/Osco and Walgreens will have an Open House on Tues. 2/16 from 4-6 P.M. at the Chgo. College of Pharmacy in Downers Grove to explain the program. It is a 6 week summer program. There is a $1200 stipend at the end of the program. RSVP at 630-971-6417 or email Cheryl Elder at celder@midwestern.edu with any questions. See Ms. Lawson for more info and an application.

After school programs:

- The Anti-Cruelty Society offers an after school program called “Exploring the Links”. The goal of the program is to help students gain insight into how violence and cruelty affect their community, themselves and animals. Meets Feb.2-Apr.13. -every Tues. & Thurs 4:30-7:00PM at 169 W. Grand Ave. See Ms. Lawson for an application or download one from www.anticruelty.org. Go to Quick Links –Education- After School Program.

Summer Classes and Programs:

- Georgetown University offers 13 programs for the summer in areas such as Journalism, Business, Leadership, Law, International Relations, Medicine, etc. Go to www.summer.georgetown.edu Click on Summer Programs for High School Students.
- Notre Dame U. offers a two week Summer Scholars program. For more details go to www.precollege.nd.edu
- Pharmacy Camp-June 13/16 2010 at Ursuline College in Pepper Pike, Ohio. Includes hands-on-labs, career planning, on-site visits to the U. of Toledo and the Cleveland Clinic. Go to www.ursuline.edu/academics/artsci/pharmacysummer/.
- The Berklee College of Music offers a five week summer program in Performance. July 10-Aug. 13. Go to www.berklee.edu/summer/fiveweeksummer/program-like.php for more information
- The Oxbridge Academic Programs offer several summer programs in Europe –Oxford, Cambridge, Paris, Montpellier, Barcelona. The age group varies according to the program. They are quite expensive (starting at about $6800, not including air fare). A small number of scholarships may be available. I have a brochure for each program, so see me if you are interested or call 1800-828-8349 or go to www.oxbridgeprograms.com.
- How would you like to spend six weeks at Cornell U or the U. of Texas at Austin? The Telluride Association offers a 6 week (6/27-8/7) program. Two programs at Cornell and one at UT-Austin. It is FREE other than your transportation cost and spending money, a possible stipend may be available. Check it out at www.tellurideassociation.org. See Ms. Lawson for a nomination or more information.
- The Telluride Assoc. offers a FREE 6 week (June 27-Aug.7) program at Indiana U. and U. of Mich. Thirty six students will be chosen. African American sophomores and other historical minorities as well as those with an interest in African American studies are especially encouraged to apply. For more info see Ms. Lawson or visit their website www.tellurideassociation.org. You can apply on-line in late November.
- Choate Rosemary hall offers 5-week and 2-week summer programs in a variety of subjects. Please see choate.edu/summerprograms for more information and to apply online.
- Northwestern college preparation program is designed for high school students who want new academic challenges and the experience of real college life. Programs are offered in a variety of subjects and range from 1-week, 3-weeks, or 8-weeks. Some courses offer college credit. See northwestern.edu/collegeprep for more information.
- Berklee College of Music in Boston has a vast array of interesting things happening in the summer, the most notable being a 5-week Summer Performance Program which attracts students from across the US and beyond. There are several other options that might also be of interest. Details here: <http://www.berklee.edu/summer/>
- Academy for Media Production at Boston University. See www.bu.edu/amp for more information. Brochures on file in Guidance Office.

Summer 2010 summer programs

- Princeton University Summer Journalism Program. All expenses paid for students from under-resourced financial background. 10 day program in August 09. Application due 2/20. www.princeton.edu/sjp. More info in guidance office.
- SCAD Rising Star program – 5 week program for rising seniors. Visit www.scad.edu/summer for more information.
- California College of the Arts see brochure in Summer Program file. For more information, see www.cca.edu/precollege or call 800-1447-ART.
- Carleton Summer Writing Program for Juniors. Full and partial scholarships available. www.carleton.edu/summer. Brochure on file under College-Specific folder A-L.
- Creative Writing Summer Programmes at the University of St. Andrews, Scotland. www.st-andrews.ac.uk/creativewritingsummerprogramme.
- Washington Summer Scholars at American University, Washington DC; www.washingtonsummersscholars.org; 1866-977-8474.
- US Naval Academy summer program – please see https://www.usna.edu/Admissions/BGIS/docs/NASS%20Brochure%20\(2009\)) for more information.
- Junior Statesmen Foundation Summer Programs at Georgetown, Princeton, Yale and Stanford. www.jsa.org/summer or call 800-317-9338. Brochure in Guidance.
- University of Pennsylvania Summer Academy in Applied Science and Technology. Applications/brochure on file in Guidance.
- University of Illinois at Urbana FREE research apprentice program to explore careers in math, science tech and engineering through the food, human and environmental sciences. Application deadline is 3/1/09. www.summerprograms.aces.illinois.edu/rap
- ASM Materials Camp – FREE! In Chicago. Spend three days investigating a materials mystery with leading experts in materials engineering. Application on file in Guidance office or visit website at www.chicagoasm.org.
- SEA Education Association – 3 week programs to sail, study and conduct research with scientists and mariners. www.SEA.edu. Limited number of need-based scholarships.
- Michigan Math and Science Scholars high school summer program. 2-week sessions at the University of Michigan. www.math.lsa.umich.edu.
- Saint Louis University - The AIMS Summer Workshop will be held in June. It includes 3-D presentations, laboratory experiences, patient interaction and a live surgery observation. The Surgical Procedures Workshop will be held in July and includes lectures, demonstrations and observations at hospitals and surgery centers. The cost is $650 per session (or $1,350 per session with on-campus room and board). More information: www.slu.edu
- University of Chicago- Chicago Academic Medicine Program (CAMP) is for seniors who have been accepted into college. CAMP offers a 1,000 stipend, buss pass and tuition is free and intended for minority or disadvantaged students. Application deadline is March 9, 2009. <http://pritzker.bsd.uchicago.edu/about/diversity/pipeline/>
- University of Chicago Young Scientist Training Program (YSTP) Intended for minority students and you must apply by March 23rd and the Chicago Academic Medicine

Summer 2010 summer programs

Program (CAMP) is for seniors. YSTP offers a 1,800.00 stipend and tuition is free. CAMP offers a 1,000 stipend, buss pass and tuition is free and intended for minority or disadvantaged students. Application can be found on <http://pritzker.bsd.uchicago.edu/about/diversity/pipeline/>

- Pharmacy – Career Exploration Program through Osco/Walgreens and the Chicago College of Pharmacy. Info meeting 2/10/09 4-6pm at the Chicago College of Pharmacy. Downers Grove, IL. (630) 971-6417; <http://mwunet.midwestern.edu/academic/CCP/ccpDean.htm>; applications on file in Guidance Dept.
- Barnard – Summer in New York City. Liberal Arts Program (co-ed) for one or four weeks and Young Women’s Leadership Institute for one week. Co-ed programs for juniors and seniors. www.barnard.edu/pcp/nyc09 or 212-854-8866.
- University of Southern California Summer Seminars, Los Angeles, CA. Over 20 seminars to choose from. <http://cesp.usc.edu>
- Boston College Summer Experience Program. Brochure on file in Guidance office or call 617-552-3800.
- Colorado College Summer Programs. Full range of course offerings in block scheduling format. www.coloradocollege.edu/summerprograms/summersession
- Carnegie Mellon – Summer of Exploration pre-college programs. www.cmu.edu/enrollment/pre-college.
- Carleton Liberal Arts Experience. Academic exploration for sophomores. www.carleton.edu/summer
- Carleton Summer Science Institute. www.carleton.edu/summer.
- Carleton Summer Writing Program for Juniors. Full and partial scholarships available. www.carleton.edu/summer
- College of William and Mary – Pre-Collegiate Summer Program in Early American History – for Juniors/Seniors. www.WM.WDU/NIAHD
- Georgetown University Summer Programs for High School Students. Programs offered in College-Prep, International Relations, Politics and Public Affairs, National Security and Counterintelligence and Business in a Global Economy. <http://summer.georgetown.edu/2009>.
- George Washington University, Washington D.C. Summer Scholars pre-college program. 10-day mini-courses for grades 9-11. 6-week pre-college program for rising seniors. www.summerscholars.gwu.edu
- Harvard Summer School Secondary School Program. Experience the challenge of Harvard academics while living on campus. www.ssp.harvard.edu.
- University of Iowa summer programs; please visit <http://www.continuetolearn.uiowa.edu/ccp/summer/summeryouthprograms.htm>
- Lewis University - Summer Aviation Flight Camp For High School Students. This is a program for high school students interested in exploring Commercial Aviation as a career choice. They will fly with an instructor each day, visit several Air Traffic Control Facilities, and build their own rockets.

Summer 2010 summer programs

- Loyola University Pre-Collegiate Summer Scholars. Three and six week sessions. Classes at Lake Shore Campus or Rome Center and a variety of courses are offered.
www.LUC.edu/summerscholars99
- St. Ambrose college preparedness program for students with documented learning disabilities. Intended for students who have completed their junior year. For more information call 563-333-6275.
- Missouri University of Science and Technology Summer Programs.
<http://summer.mst.edu>.
- Northwestern University College Preparation Program. Commute or live on campus; a variety of courses are available. www.northwestern.edu/collegeprep
- Notre Dame Pre-College Programs. Summer Scholars. A variety of course offerings are available for rising Juniors and Seniors within a 2 week program.
<http://precollege.nd.edu>.
- Smith College Summer Science and Engineering Program for High School Girls. Smith.edu/ssep or (413) 585-3060.
- Vanderbilt Summer Academy - Programs for Talented Youth grades 7 – 11.
www.ptv.vanderbilt.edu.
- Washington University in St. Louis – High School Summer Scholars Program for students entering their junior or senior year. www.summerscholars.wustl.edu.
- Xavier University Jumpstart Program More information: www.xavier.edu/jumpstart. Two programs available, one in Criminalistics and Forensic Science and the second on pre-medicine.
- Are you interested in Medicine as a career? There is a summer program sponsored by the National Youth Leadership Forum. Go to www.nylf.org for more information. If you want to be nominated for the program, see Ms. Lawson by Friday 1/29.
- Howard U. School of Business offers a one week residential Summer Enrichment Program for those interested in business, accounting, hospitality mgmt, computer info sys., ins./actuarial science. It is FREE except for transportation to and from Washington, D.C. See Ms. Lawson for an application or go to www.howard.edu and search for Summer Enrichment programs offered by the School of Business. The person in charge prefers that you call him at 202-806-1504 or e-mail him at nsantiago@howard.edu

Leadership Programs

- Each year the Hugh O'Brien Youth Leadership program asks us to nominate a sophomore to attend their leadership seminar. It is held June 10-13 at Robert Morris U. in Chicago. The program feels that sophomore year is an important year in which to start the development of leadership. If you would like more info about the program go to hoby.org. See Ms. Lawson for a nomination application. There is a fee to attend, the student chosen will pay $150. I can nominate more but their fee will be $325.
- If you would like to be nominated for the National Youth Leadership Forum on Medicine to be held the summer of 2010 please see Ms. Lawson ASAP. The forum is held in various cities such as Chicago, Boston, Houston, L.A., etc. The cost is about $2650 not including air fare. Some scholarships may be available. You may find more info at nylf.org.

Summer 2010 summer programs

- Lead America sponsors the Congressional Student Leadership Conference in the summer. One is the National Leadership Summit and the other is Leadership University. Go to www.lead-america.org for more information or see Ms. Lawson by Friday if you would like to be nominated.
- Georgetown University offers summer programs designed to inspire and prepare high school students for college. Opportunities to earn college credit. Admission is competitive and early applications are encouraged. Limited partial scholarships available. Please see summer.georgetown.edu for application materials and more information.
- Oxford offers a residential summer program at Brasenose College with a variety of subjects and sports. Must be 16 by start of program to apply. For more information, visit oasp.ac.uk.
- University of Nebraska offers its Big Red summer academic champs program, which includes a variety of subjects and a few sports. Must be entering sophomore year in fall 2010 to participate. See bigredcamps.unl.edu for more information.
- Washington University in St. Louis two summer course sessions for students entering junior or sophomore year in autumn 2010. Deadline for the first session is May 7 and for the second session is June 11. Please see summerscholars.wustl.edu for more information and application materials.
- Smith College offers a summer Science and Engineering program for all high school girls. Please see smith.edu/ssep for more information.
- United States Military Academy, Summer Leaders Seminar at West Point, May 29-June 4 and June 5-11, 2010 www.admissions.usma.edu or (845-938-4041)
- Economics for Leaders – hosted at a variety of colleges around the country. www.fte.org
- National Student Leadership Conference – Students meet with nationally-renowned guest speakers, explore the qualities of leadership and gain an insider's perspective on many professions. www.nslcleaders.org

Summer internships:

- The U. of I at Urbana is offering a summer program called the Research Apprentice Program(RAP). It is a 6 week program. Go to <http://summerprograms.aces.illinois.edu> for more information and an application or call 217-333-3380. Two of our students attended last year and enjoyed it very much. You might want to talk to them. They are Mike Tonner and Mariana Gonzalez. Deadline 3/15
- Fermilab is offering TARGET: Science and Engineering Program which is a PAID non-residential summer internship opportunity. Dates: June 21-July 30. For more information and an application see Ms. Lawson or go to <http://wdrs.fnal.gov/eo/target.html>. Deadline: 4/5/2010
- Golden Apple of Illinois – program for future teachers- students are nominated from April of their Junior year until November 30th of their Senior year. Students must express a desire to teach in an Illinois school of need.

Summer 2010 summer programs

www.goldenapple.org/scholars.htm. Nomination forms in Summer Program File.

- US House of Representatives Page Program – must be 16 years old and have at least a 3.0 gpa. Please visit <http://pageprogram.house.gov> for more information.
- The Washington Workshops Foundation, Washington Internship Experience. Three to six week internship on Capitol Hill. www.workshops.org. Brochure and applications on file.
- Bank of America is offering an 8 week paid summer internship at a local nonprofit, a Student Leadership Summit in Washington, D.C. and learn how nonprofits, gov't. & business can partner to create a positive impact in our communities. Apply by Feb.17 at bankofamerica.com/neistudentleaders.

Summer Abroad Programs

- Academic Trecks – summer service programs in foreign countries. www.academictrecks.com or (888) 833-1908.
- Broadreach Summer Programs - Adventure, Community Service, Marine Biology, Sailing, and more programs abroad for 13-19 year olds. www.gobreadreach.com. Or (888) 833-1907
- Cambridge College Programme at University of Cambridge, Cambridge, England
- International Leadership Programme in its 22nd year of operation (312) 787-7477 or www.cambridgecollegeprogramme.org
- International Seminar Series – Service Learning in Paris/Barcelona, a program of cultural immersion through community service and study. www.study-serve.org or 802-362-5855
- Visions Service Adventures – service work, cultural and language immersion and exploration and adventure. www.VisionsServiceAdventures.com or 717-567-7313
- Oxbridge Academic Programs in Spain, France and England. Affiliated with Cambridge and Oxford Universities. www.oxbridgeprograms.com or 212-663-8169
- Oxford Advanced Studies Program – Academic Semester in Oxford. www.oasp.ac.uk
- Oxford Advanced Studies Program – Summer Courses 2009 www.oasp.ac.uk
- Sail Caribbean – Teen sailing, scuba and community service. www.sailcaribbean.com
- Scottish Studies and Creative Writing Summer Programmes at the University of St. Andrews, Scotland. www.st-andrews.ac.uk/creativewritingsummerprogramme. www.st-andrews.ac.uk/schttishstudiessummerprogramm.

Programs designed to encourage racial and socio-economic diversity:

- Notre Dame U. offers three special summer programs free of charge. Two are for Latino and African American students, the third program is open to any junior. It is called Global Issues Seminar. More information and the applications are available on line. Go to www.precollege.nd.edu.
- On Thursday November 5th, representatives from the National Hispanic Institute (NHI) will be coming to present their summer programs to interested freshmen and sophomores. They hold 4-6 day seminars where students sharpen their leadership, public speaking and debating skills while receiving mentoring from members of the Latino business and educational communities. Although most of their participants are of Latino background, their programs are open to students of all backgrounds. We have students here at St. Ignatius who are alums of NHI's summer programs.

- If you are of Hispanic heritage, The Hispanic Heritage Foundation and Colgate-Palmolive are offering "HAZ LA U" (Make the U) which will award 16 educational grants to Hispanic students NATIONWIDE. Grand Prize is a $10,000 educational grant. 15 other students will also have the opportunity to win $1,000 each. Go to www.colgate.com/hazlau and submit a short essay. Call 888-528-5188 for more information.
- PREFACE summer program is a two-week residential summer experience at Rensselaer for talented high school students who will enter 11th or 12th grade in the fall of 2010 and who have expressed interest in pursuing a career in the engineering and technological professions. It is for academically talented, but underrepresented minorities. Deadline for applications is March 9, 2010. See pri.edu for more information.
- The Illinois Section of the American Society of Civil Engineers Intro to Engineering Program at Notre Dame is seeking applications from minority students. 3 week program – limited number of scholarships available. 4/14/09 deadline. Call Mr. Nazario 312-371-2745.
- University of Chicago Young Scientist Training Program (YSTP) Intended for minority students and you must apply by March 23rd. 1,800 stipend is paid to students who work in the university labs. Application can be found on <http://pritzker.bsd.uchicago.edu/about/diversity/pipeline/>
- University of Dayton – Women in Engineering Camp. More information: <http://engineering2.udayton.edu/wie> or 937-229-3296
- Cornell University CATALYST Academy one week summer residential program for high school students from underrepresented groups who enjoy and excel in math and science and are interested in engineering. <http://www.engineering.cornell.edu/catalyst> or 607-255-6403.
- The Illinois Section of the American Society of Civil Engineers Intro to Engineering Program at Notre Dame is seeking applications from minority students. 3 week program – limited number of scholarships available. For more information, call Mr. Nazario 312-371-2745.
- National Hispanic Institute – Youth Leadership Summer Program at Loyola University Chicago More information, www.nhi-net.com.
- Calvin College Entrada Scholars Program – Summer academic achievement program for minority juniors and seniors. Students pay 500.00 if admitted to the 4 week program. www.calvin.edu/entrada. Deadline is 2/15/08.

Informational Databases:

- If you are looking for something to do this summer why not check out these books? Guide to Summer Camps and Summer Schools. Call 978-692-9708 or visit www.portersargent.com. There is a special discount if ordered by 1/15. The special code is PREPUB. Another book is the Summer Programs for Kids and Teenagers 2009. I believe they update it every year so the next one should be for 2010.

Summer 2010 summer programs

- If you are looking for a pre-college program for the summer check out www.summerdiscovery.com. It has a list of a variety of programs. There is also a flyer on the counseling door and I have a catalog if you would like more information.
- The College Counseling center has the Guide to Summer Camps and Summer Schools available for reference.

The Guide to Summer Canps and Summer Schools 2010/2011 is available for use in the College Counseling Office Room 140.